

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Americans are served every day by Public servants at the federal, state, county and city levels. These unsung heroes do the necessary work that keep our nation running. Their tireless efforts were especially critical during the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, many public servants including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professional and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world;

WHEREAS, Public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers and countless other occupations; and

WHEREAS, day in and day out they have continued to fulfill their duties throughout the public health crisis even at their own personal risk – to provide services needed by the American people; and

WHEREAS, without public servants at every level of government, continuity of public service would be impossible; and

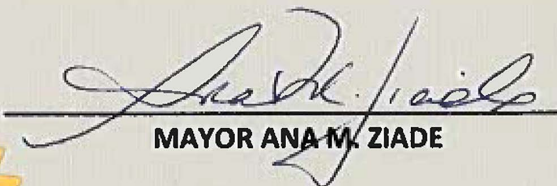

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission of the City of North Lauderdale, Florida do hereby proclaim May 2-8, 2021 as:

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK and encourage all citizens to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels - federal, state, county, and city.

Dated this 29th day of April, 2021
